Welcome Message

Dear Esteemed Colleagues, Friends, and Guests,

It is with immense pleasure and a deep sense of pride that I welcome you all to the 52nd Annual Conference of the Bihar Orthopaedic Association BOACON 2026, being held this year in the vibrant and culturally rich city of Saharsa.

This annual gathering is more than just a meeting—it's a celebration of our shared commitment to advancing orthopaedic science, enhancing surgical skill, and improving patient care across Bihar and beyond. Over the years, BOACON has become a vital platform for academic excellence and collaborative exchange.

The 52nd edition of this conference promises to be both intellectually stimulating and practically enriching. With renowned national faculty, expert panel discussions, paper presentations, and surgical workshops, we aim to create a dynamic environment where knowledge flows freely and innovation is sparked.

To our young orthopaedic surgeons and postgraduate students – this conference is as much yours as it is ours. Participate actively, ask questions, and make the most of the learning opportunities.

On behalf of Koshi Orthopaedic Club, I warmly welcome each one of you. Let this conference be a time of learning, bonding and inspiration as we collectively move forward in the service of our patients and growth of our profession

ATTRACTIONS

Rakta Kali temple, Matsyagandha, Saharsa,

The barren water logged area in Saharsa town has been developed as a beautiful place commonly known as Matsyagandha Mandir. The construction of Rakta Kali temple and an oval shaped temple with 64 deities (known as 64- Yogini) engraved on the inner walls of temple, attracts devotees from far-off places. The Bihar Government has established a beautiful tourist complex at this place.

There is no well-known "Vishnu Temple" specifically in Saharsa, Bihar; the primary ancient temple in the area is the Shri Ugratara Mandir in Mahishi, Saharsa, which is dedicated to the goddess Tara and associated with the Tantrik cult, not Lord Vishnu. While there are many Vishnu temples across India, Saharsa's prominent temple is the Ugratara Mandir.

CHANDRIKA STHAN Saharsa Bihar" translates to Chandika Sthan, Biratpur, Saharsa, Bihar. It refers to an ancient and significant temple dedicated to Goddess Chandi (also known as Maa Chandika Bhawani), located in the Biratpur village within the Saharsa district of Bihar, India

The Surya Mandir in Saharsa, Bihar, refers to the Sun Temple at Kandaha, a significant religious and historical site located about 16 km west of the Saharsa district headquarters. This temple is recognized by the Archaeological Survey of India for its magnificent idol of Surya (Sun God) riding a seven-horse chariot, carved from a single granite slab.
